	Approved For Release 2008/04/08 : CIA-RDP80-00810A005400830004-0
		-
	CLASSIFICATION_SECRET
COUNTRY	Austria REPORT	_25X1
TOPIC	Military Information from Vienna and Goetzendorf	25X1
EVALUATION_	PLACE OBTAINED	25X
DATE OF CON	ITENT	25X
DATE OBTAIN	ED. DATE PREPARED 3 November 1954	25X
REFERENCES
PAGES	2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)	(vagavinos), circumspolegias, spinos directalisticalists
REMARKS
\L!!!!\\\\\\\	2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2
	This is UNEVALUATED Information
· · ·
1.	On 2 October 1954, officers and soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, were observed near the Trost Kaserne. The caserne was guarded by a sentry. The ground floor of the former inn opposite the kaserne served as an officers' club, two storic contained offices, and two stories were used as quarters for officers' dependents. Truck driven by a soldier with red-bordered black
1.	On 2 October 1954, officers and soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, were observed near the Trost Kaserne. The caserne was guarded by a sentry. The ground floor of the former inn opposite the kaserne served as an officers' club, two storic contained offices, and two stories were used as quarters for officers' dependents. Truck driven by a soldier with red-bordered black epaulets carried sand to a childrens' playground which was located in the garden of the former inn. Three tin-covered van-like trucks and three gun barrels without muzzle brake from armored vehicles were sent at the repair shop at 109 through 111 Trost Strasse. About 20 soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets from the Trost Kaserne entered	es 25X
1.	On 2 October 1954, officers and soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, were observed near the Trost Kaserne. The caserne was guarded by a sentry. The ground floor of the former inn opposite the kaserne served as an officers' club, two storic contained offices, and two stories were used as quarters for officers' dependents. Truck driven by a soldier with red-bordered black epaulets carried sand to a childrens' playground which was located in the garden of the former inn. Three tin-covered van-like trucks and three gun barrels without muzzle brake from armored vehicles were sent at the repair shop at 109 through 111 Trost Strasse. About 20 soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets from the Trost Kaserne enterethe repair shop which contained about 15 armored vehicles. Jeep was parked in front of the entrance gate. Three soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets left the garage near the water tower on Windten Strasse. No other traffic or motor vehicles were seen at the installation. Fresh tracks of motor vehicles led to the garage on Alxinger Strasse which was guarded by a santry with red-bordered black epaulets. Several soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets and parked motor vehicles were seen at the garage. About 30 vehicles	es 25X
1.	On 2 October 1954, officers and soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, were observed near the Trost Kaserne. The caserne was guarded by a sentry. The ground floor of the former inn opposite the kaserne served as an officers club, two storic contained offices, and two stories were used as quarters for officers dependents. Truck driven by a soldier with red-bordered black epaulets carried sand to a childrens playground which was located in the garden of the former inn. Three tin-coured van-like trucks and three gun barrels without muzzle brake from armored vehicles were sent at the repair shop at 109 through 111 Trost Strasse. About 20 soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets from the Trost Kaserne entered the repair shop which contained about 15 armored vehicles. Jeep was parked in front of the entrance gate. Three soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets left the garage near the water tower on Windten Strasse. No other traffic or motor vehicles were seen at the installation. Fresh tracks of motor vehicles led to the garage on Alxinger Strasse which was guarded by a sentry with red-bordered black epaulets and parked motor vehicles were seen at the garage. About 30 vehicles were observed at the garage on Pernerstorfer Gasse which was guarded by a sentry with red-bordered black epaulets.	25X d 25X 25X1 25X1
1.	On 2 October 1954, officers and soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, were observed near the Trost Kaserne. The caserne was guarded by a sentry. The ground floor of the former inn opposite the kaserne served as an officers club, two storic contained offices, and two stories were used as quarters for officers dependents. Truck driven by a soldier with red-bordered black epaulets carried sand to a childrens playground which was located in the garden of the former inn. Three tin-covered van-like trucks and three gun barrels without muzzle brake from armored vehicles were sent at the repair shop at 109 through 111 Trost Strasse. About 20 soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets from the Trost Kaserne enteres the repair shop which contained about 15 armored vehicles. Jeep was parked in front of the entrance gate. Three soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets left the garage near the water tower on Windten Strasse. No other traffic or motor vehicles were seen at the installation. Fresh tracks of motor vehicles led to the garage on Alxinger Strasse which was guarded by a sentry with red-bordered black epaulets. Several soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets and parked motor vehicles were seen at the garage. About 30 vehicles were observed at the garage on Pernerstorfer Gasse which was guarded by a sentry with red-bordered black epaulets.	25X d 25X 25X1 25X1
1.	On 2 October 1954, officers and soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, were observed near the Trost Kaserne. The caserne was guarded by a sentry. The ground floor of the former inn opposite the kaserne served as an officers club, two storic contained offices, and two stories were used as quarters for officers dependents. Truck driven by a soldier with red-bordered black epaulets carried sand to a childrens playground which was located in the garden of the former inn. Three tin-covered van-like trucks and three gun barrels without muzzle brake from armored vehicles were sent at the repair shop at 109 through 111 Trost Strasse. About 20 soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets from the Trost Kaserne entered the repair shop which contained about 15 armored vehicles. Jeep was parked in front of the entrance gate. Three soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets left the garage near the water tower on windten Strasse. No other traffic or motor vehicles were seen at the installation. Fresh tracks of motor vehicles led to the garage on Alxinger Strasse which was guarded by a santry with red-bordered black epaulets. Several soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets and parked motor vehicles were seen at the garage. About 30 vehicles were observed at the garage on Pernerstorfer Gasse which was guarded by a sentry with red-bordered black epaulets. Most of the vehicles were trucks	25X d 25X 25X1 25X1
2.	On 2 October 1954, officers and soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, were observed near the Trost Kaserne. The caserne was guarded by a sentry. The ground floor of the former inn opposite the kaserne served as an officers' club, two storic contained offices, and two stories were used as quarters for officers' dependents. Truck driven by a soldier with red-bordered black epaulets carried sand to a childrens' playground which was located in the garden of the former inn. Three tin-covered van-like trucks and three gun barrels without muzzle brake from armored vehicles were sent at the repair shop at 109 through 111 Trost Strasse. About 20 soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets from the Trost Kaserne entered the repair shop which contained about 15 armored vehicles. Jeep was parked in front of the entrance gate. Three soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets left the garage near the water tower on Windten Strasse. No other traffic or motor vehicles were seen at the installation. Fresh tracks of motor vehicles led to the garage on Alxinger Strasse which was guarded by a sentry with red-bordered black epaulets. Several soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets and parked motor vehicles were seen at the garage. About 30 vehicles were observed at the garage on Pernerstorfer Gasse which was guarded by a sentry with red-bordered black epaulets. Sedan	25X 25X 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X
	On 2 October 1954, officers and soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some with artillery insignia, were observed near the Trost Kaserne. The caserne was guarded by a sentry. The ground floor of the former inn opposite the kaserne served as an officers club, two storic contained offices, and two stories were used as quarters for officers dependents. Truck driven by a soldier with red-bordered black epaulets carried sand to a childrens playground which was located in the garden of the former inn. Three tin-cowered van-like trucks and three gun barrels without muzzle brake from armored vehicles were sent at the repair shop at 109 through 111 Trost Strasse. About 20 soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets from the Trost Kaserne entered the repair shop which contained about 15 armored vehicles. Jeep was parked in front of the entrance gate. Three soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets left the garage near the water tower on Windten Strasse. No other traffic or motor vehicles were seen at the installation. Fresh tracks of motor vehicles led to the garage on Alxinger Strasse which was guarded by a sentry with red-bordered black epaulets and parked motor vehicles were seen at the garage. About 30 vehicles were observed at the garage on Pernerstorfer Gasse which was guarded by a sentry with red-bordered black epaulets. Most of the vehicles were trucks Sedan driven by a soldier with black-bordered red epaulets left the garage. Con 30 September, only nine parked vehicles were seen at the Fasancarten Kaserne in Goetzendorf. The installation was guarded by a sentry. Only a few soldiers were observed in the barracks installation area. A building in the western section apparently were occupied because smoke was seen rising from chimneys of these two buildings only. Seven dependents with bags left the western section	25X 25X 25X1 25X1 25X1 25X

25X1

1. Comment. Except for jeep the other vehicle 25X1

Delong to the Central Group of Forces and the 13th Gds 25X1

Mecz Div in Vienna.

2. Comment. It is believed that the bulk of the mortar regiment of the 13th Gds Mecz Div and 55th Tk Tng Bn from the Fasangarten Kaserne is still absent from the post and probably stationed at the Doellersheim troop training grounds.

Nodex

300797